

News

Macomb County
Office of Public Affairs

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 6, 2009

Phil Frame
Office of Public Affairs
586-469-7239
phil.frame@macombcountymi.gov

Crime victim seminar to be held in Clinton Township

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – Senior citizens can learn how to protect themselves against scams and caregiver abuse by attending a seminar during the 4th annual Crime Victims Rights Week seminar.

The free seminar is 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Thursday, April 30, at the Macomb Intermediate School District headquarters building, 44001 Garfield Road in Clinton Township. The program includes morning refreshments and lunch.

The event is hosted by the Macomb County Department of Senior Citizen Services and the Macomb County Prosecutor's Office.

Seminar speakers include Macomb County Prosecutor Eric Smith; assistant prosecutor and chief of the senior crime unit Suzanne Faunce; Dr. Daniel Spitz, Macomb County medical examiner; and Linda Savoyard, Macomb County Senior Citizen Services counselor.

Seniors will have the chance to talk to a Senior Citizen Services advisor regarding services provided by the department and elsewhere in the community. Free fingerprinting kits and 9-1-1 cellular phones will be available. Registration is required because seating is limited. To register or for more information, contact Chris Misuraca at (586) 469-6326.

###