Macomb County hosts alternative energy workshop for manufacturers

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – Manufacturers can learn how to grow their business and diversify their customer base by focusing on the manufacturing needs of the growing alternative energy market at the “Alternative Energy Manufacturing 101” workshop.

The workshop is 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday, Feb. 20, at the Macomb Intermediate School District Educational Service Center, 44001 Garfield Road in Clinton Township. It is sponsored by the Macomb County Department of Planning and Economic Development (MCPED) along with NextEnergy and Michigan Economic Development Corp.

Seating is limited and registration required. The $50 fee includes all workshop materials, breakfast and lunch. For more information, call MCPED at 586-469-5285. Register online and see event details at www.regonline.com/MacombAlternativeEnergy.

The event will examine the manufacturing needs of the wind, solar and new electric technology industries. People can talk to other business professionals who have experience in working with the alternative industry sector. Guest speakers from alternative energy companies are scheduled.
