Macomb County hosts annual public auction

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – Whether you need a bus, jewelry, a digital camera, motorcycle, or a computer there will be one-stop shopping at Macomb County’s annual auction sale.

The sale starts at 9 a.m. Saturday, May 2, at the county warehouse located at 44900 Vic Wertz Drive in Clinton Township (south side of M-59 between Groesbeck and North Avenue). The only advance viewing of the sale items will be one hour before the auction.

Visit www.crydermanauctions.com and look under the “Auctions” link for a list of items on sale. People should check in often to see new items being added to the auction.

A healthy assortment of vehicles is available, including all terrain vehicles, several trucks and motorcycles, a van, numerous cars and a few sports utility vehicles. This year, the auction will have 85 bicycles for sale.

A good selection of office equipment, electronics, tools and sporting goods will also be available.

All sales are final and must be paid in full the day of the sale. Those purchasing a vehicle may make a 20 percent deposit (or $200, whichever is greater), with the full amount to be paid by 2 p.m. Monday, May 4.

Everything is sold as-is without warranty. Buyers are responsible for removing their items from the site. Only cash or checks are accepted.

For more information, call the auction hotline at 586-783-8164.

About Macomb County

Macomb County is an enriching community in Southeastern Michigan that has one of the state's fastest rates of growth. Its 847,000 residents make it Michigan's third-largest county, with direct access to Lake St. Clair and Anchor Bay, and a host of cultural and entertainment options. Its highly skilled workforce and investment in new and expanding businesses make it open to enterprise. An increasingly diverse population and high quality of life make Macomb County accessible to all.
